COL. ED. S. LATIMER.

Passed Away at His Home in Wilmington Yesterday Evening at Six O'clock.

FUNERAL THIS AFTERNOON.

Member of Governor Fowle's Staff and Has Had Other Military Honors—A Mother, Wife, Two Daughters and Two Brothers Survive.

Col. Edward Savage Latimer, a well known and highly esteemed citizen of Wilmington, died last evening at 6 o'clock at his home, 308 North Third street, after a lingering illness of several months.

Only this week Col. Latimer returned from a sanitarium in Baltimore, where he was under treatment of some of the most skilled physicians in the country, but all in vain. He gradually grew worse after his arrival at home and his death came not wholly unexpected, bnt as a shock to his family and numerous friends here and elsewhere.

Col. Latimer was born in Wilmington on September 25th, 1857, and was therefore in the forty-fourth year of his age. His parents were the late Mr. Zebulon Latimer and Mrs. Elizabeth Savage Latimer, the latter now surviving him. His father died at an advanced age in the year 1881. Col. Latimer's early education was received from the Rev. Daniel Morrelle, a well known instructor in his day. Later, he entered the Columbia Law School and graduated from that institution in 1879. Soon after graduation he entered the law firm of Stedman & Latimer, which was composed of Major Chas. M. Stedman and a brother, Mr. William Latimer. This was in the year 1881. On June 1st of the year preceding, he was married in Hillsboro, N. C., to Miss Anna Giles Huske. She, with two charming young daughters, Miss Anabel, aged 16 years, and Miss Elizabeth, aged 13 years, survive him and are tenderly sympathized with by hundreds of friends. He is also survived by two brothers, Mr. Henry G. Latimer, of Auburn, N. Y., and Mr. Wm. Latimer, of this city.

Col. Latimer was possessed of a genial and kind disposition; generous to a fault; reserved in manner, and cherishing a very high sense of honor. All who knew him were his friends and few men have lived and died in Wilmington with a more amiable character than was his.

For the past few years he has not been actively engaged on account of his impaired health. He always had a decided inclination to the military and was a colonel upon the staff of Governor Fowle. He had been a member of the Wilmington Light Infantry and of the Wilmington Division, Naval Reserves. At one time he was paymaster of the local division of the Reserves. In all of the organizations he was deservedly popular for his generous spirit and manly bearing. He served for one term as a member of the Board of Aldermen from the Fourth ward, a colleague of ex-Mayor Jno. J. Fowler. During a major portion of his life, he was a member of the Cape Fear Club, this city, the Carolina Yacht Club, Wrightsville Beach; the Racquet Club, of New York; Chi Phi Fraternity at Columbia College, and perhaps other social organizations. He was also identified with several secret orders, among them being Orient Lodge of Masons, Plantagenet Commandery, Knight Templars, the Shriners, Clarendon Lodge, Knights of Pythias, and Eyota Tribe No. 5, Improved Order of Red Men.

Col. Latimer was the largest shareholder until a short time ago, in the Wilmington Seacoast Railroad and was its Traffic Manager for several terms. In all his business dealings he was fair, generous and honest.

The funeral will be conducted this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock from St. James' Episcopal church and the interment will be in Oakdale cemetery.

TWO BIG EXCURSIONS YESTERDAY.

Visitors to City and Beaches Numbered About One Thousand Again.

The number of excursions which has thus far arrived in Wilmington during the month of August was perhaps never before exceeded during a single month in the past. Yesterday two large parties arrived from Williamston and Fayetteville over the W. & W. and A. & Y. railroads, respectively. Both trains were taken through to Wrightsville, but the excursionists later came up to the city and after enjoying a trip down the river on the steamer Wilmington, left last night, returning to their homes.

The party from Williamston was in charge of Hatch Bros., the veteran managers of Mount Olive, and consisted of between 500 and 600 persons. The train from Fayetteville consisted of seven coaches which brought about 400 people. There were almost as many more left along the route who could not be accommodated on the train.

CAPTURED WOULD-BE BURGLAR.

Officer Frank George Arrested John Williams Entering Store of a Syrian.

Policeman Frank George made an opportune capture of a would-be burglar Tuesday night. His name is John Williams, colored, and in the municipal court yesterday morning he was held for the Superior Court in the sum of $100, failing to give which he went over to the county jail.

Just before midnight A. W. Waddell and G. W. Hayes, colored flatmen on the river, discovered some one trying to enter the store of a Syrian next to Mr. Lamb's place on corner of Princess and Water streets. One of the men immediately left in search of a policeman and found Officer George, who proceeded very quietly to the store and caught Williams as he had just broken a glass in the door and was going through the opening. The negro offered very little if any resistance and was locked up at the City Hall.

Mr. Rising's Condition.

The condition of Mr. R. F. Rising, who was severely injured in the runaway at Third and Dock streets night before last, was not so favorable yesterday. The wounds are very painful, and Mr. Rising being pretty well advanced in years, it makes recovery slow and very unsatisfactory.

The Superior Courts.

A number of Wilmington attorneys are attending Duplin Superior Court at Kenansville this week. Next Monday Pender Superior Court begins at Burgaw. Brunswick's term of the court will not be convened until Sept. 23rd.

GAME WITH NEWBERN

Champions Greatly Pleased With Their Neighbors and Will Play There Again.

SCORE YESTERDAY: 6 TO 0.

Team Given a Complimentary Excursion On the River Neuse—Not a Lonesome Run Made Until Ninth Inning. A Garrisonian Finish.

[Special Star Telegram.]

NEWBERN, N. C., Aug. 28.—The greatest ball ever played here was witnessed to-day although the home team broke in the ninth inning and allowed the Wilmington Giants to score six runs. Wilmington played almost faultless ball, making but one error of a fumbled ball in the field. Newbern had the visitors guessing until the fatal ninth when they played fierce ball on account of Newbern' having Bush, of Tarboro, in the box Bush caught the fancy of the grand stand while Gettig, at short stop, was faultless. The same clubs will play here again to-morrow. Wilmington will have Warren in the box and Newbern will pitch Gettig. Newbern expects to strengthen some weak spots.

The Wilmington club was treated to a moonlight excursion on the Neuse river to-night.

SCORE BY INNINGS.

Wilmington..	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	6	6	8	1

Batteries: Hopkins and Thackara; Bush and Surles.

Summary—Struck out Hopkins 5, Bush 6. Bases on balls, off Bush 1. Hit by pitched ball, Allen. Left on bases Wilmington 6, Newbern 3. Time one hour and fifteen minutes. Umpire Stevens. Attendance, 1,000.

NEWBERN, N. C., Aug. 28.—The champions play here again to-morrow and will return home Friday. In Wilmington Saturday they will play a strong local team. It will be a big benefit game for our boys and something they richly deserve. Manager Cowan says his team is greatly pleased with Newbern and her clever people.

Kinston Defeated Tarboro.

KINSTON, N. C., August 28.—The third and last game of the series with Tarboro resulted in a victory for the amateurs. The weather was bad and the game was all but prevented by rain, but at 5.15 P. M. a cessation in the storm allowed the game to proceed, but with a very poor attendance. The home boys stood pat this time and won out with professional assistance, using its regular home battery.

The game was won in the first inning principally on account of a wet ball and bad condition of the grounds. The game was called at the end of the sixth inning on account of darkness. Lehman, in the box for the Babies, captured the grand stand. Tarboro leaves in the morning for Goldsboro.

An effort will be made to get games here with Wilmington next week.

THE SCORE BY INNINGS.

	1	2	3	4	5	6	R	H	E

Kinston	6	1	0	0	0	0	7	10	6

Batteries: Lehman and Galloway; Suggs and Morton and Harper.

Summary — Bases stolen, Lewis, Harper (2), Weddige, Lehman (2), Galloway (2). Two base hit, Herbert. Double plays, McDonald to Meacham. Base on balls, off Suggs 1. Struck out, by Lehman 2, by Suggs 2. Passed balls, Galloway 2. Time one hour. Umpire, Mr. Suggs.

The Finest Ball Ever Played in Newbern.

— The X. Y. P. thinks it was a shetout for Newbern.

— Hughes, of the Raleigh team, has returned to Washington. Person has gone to his home at Waynesville, N. C.

— Our boys are delighted with Newbern and its people. They are receiving gentlemanly treatment and are fully prepared to appreciate it.

— The Russian reporter of the STAR observes that Kingksky Kellyovitch claims the pennantsky. Of courseshy. Raleighovitch claims everythingsky.

— The Raleigh team played Durham yesterday afternoon and will play there again to-day. Friday and Saturday Durham will play in Raleigh.

— Dommel and Thackara each got three hits in the game Tuesday. The former was at bat five times and the latter only four. One of Dommel's hits was a double.

— An enthusiast suggests that an Eastern North Carolina League be formed to consist of teams from Wilmington, Newbern, Goldsboro, Kinston and Tarboro.

— That was a fine game yesterday up to the ninth inning, neither team having made a run at the close of the eighth. Then Wilmington ended the agony by making six runs.

— Newbern Journal: "The star play was Devlin's fly catch from Smith's bat at second, making a double. Clayton's running catch of Gettig's fly over short stop was applauded."

— Newbern Journal: "Newbern's two earned runs in the first inning was an eye opener for "Tacks" Allen. The "Scrubs," as the late Mr. Persons, of Raleigh, called them, have a disconcerting way of jarring every pitcher that comes here."

— Next Monday is Labor Day, a general holiday, and if the Wilmington team could make an arrangement with the Tarboro team for a game on that day the attendance would doubtless be very large. This might be followed by games Tuesday and Wednesday.

— Tarboro Southerner: "Baseball is likely to be a benefit to the community in more ways than one. Kemmer, the superb first baseman, will open a restaurant in the Hotel Howard building. It will be modern in its appointments and patrons will be served with the best any market affords."

— Raleigh News and Observer: "Manager Kelly has addressed a letter to President Sherwood Higgs laying claim to the pennant for the Raleigh team. Before awarding this President Higgs will wait to hear what Wilmington has to say in the matter and will then act with the full facts before him."

GREAT COUNCIL OF RED MEN.

It Will Meet in Raleigh Next Tuesday. Wilmington Representatives.

The Great Council, Improved Order of Red Men, will meet in annual session at Raleigh on next Tuesday. There has been a very decided growth of the order in North Carolina within the past year and an enthusiastic session is expected.

Capt. W. S. Liddell, of Charlotte, is presiding officer of the Great Council and among the Wilmington members of it are Great Junior Sagamore W. H. Lane, Great Prophet J. R. Davis, Past Sachems E. P. H. Struck and J. M. McGowan. The two last named are Great Trustees.

There are now fifteen tribes of the order in the State with a membership of 1,500. Six new tribes have been instituted during the past year. Two councils of the degree of Pocahontas have been likewise instituted. There are other applications for new tribes on file.

The local tribes in this city—Eyota No. 5 and Cherokee No. 9—will be represented at the Great Council by Messrs. E. P. H. Strunck and M. Marshburn, respectively.

CRUISE OF NAVAL RESERVES

Saturday Night is the Time of Their Departure for Southport.

Spick and span and as neat as a pin, the Naval Reserves' cruiser Hornet is now off the ways at Skinner's Shipyard and in perfect readiness for the cruise which the Wilmington Division is contemplating with much pleasure on Saturday night of this week. The improvement of the ship by the government has wrought a great transformation in the appearance of the cruiser as well as added to its sea worthiness.

A special meeting of the Wilmington Division will be held to-night at 8:15 o'clock at which all arrangements will be made for the trip. It is not known yet, whether the local division will be joined by the Newbern boys as an organization, but a number of the officers are expected at any rate. The meeting to-night will be held at 8:15 promptly and a full attendance is urged

EXCURSION FROM RALEIGH TO-DAY.

It Will Arrive About Noon and Remain Until To-morrow Night

Only one excursion is scheduled to arrive in the city to-day. It will come from Raleigh and the train will leave that city at 7 o'clock this morning, reaching the beach about noon. Passengers will be taken as far this way as Lumberton, and the railroad trip rate of $2 will doubtless attract a large crowd.

The party will be in charge of Weathers and Christian, and will return, leaving Wilmington at 7:30 P. M., to-morrow.

An excursion, conducted by Hatch Bros., will reach the city from Rockingham to-morrow.

A Feature Suggested.

A great addition to the attractions for the Elks' carnival would be a procession of eight or ten street cars, running over the entire line of the street railway, and all brilliantly illuminated and handsomely decorated. It would not interfere with the regular schedule more than an hour, perhaps, and it is safe to say that the cars would be well filled with passengers. This feature might be scheduled for the second or third night from 9 to 10 o'clock.

Durham and Greensboro Elks.

The Durham Lodge of Elks will give an old fashioned barbecue to the Greensboro Lodge at Huckleberry Springs, four miles west of Durham, to-night. The Greensboro people will go over on a special coach. Covers for three hundred will be laid, and Mr. W. G. Branham, of the Durham Lodge, will act as master of ceremonies.

Will Open Branch Office.

Mr. H. S. P. Kelly, who has been a draughtsman in the office of Mr. Charles E. McMillen, architect, of this city, has gone to Greensboro, where he will open a branch office for Mr. McMillen. Another branch office, with his son in charge, was recently opened by Mr. McMillen in Durham.

Gone For Vacation.

Mr. John Frank, manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company, has gone to Virginia to recuperate his health which has been very poor for several months. Mr. W. G. Sale is in charge of the office in Mr. Frank's absence.

YACHT SADIE WON.

Victor in August Regatta of the Carolina Yacht Club Yesterday Afternoon.

RACE CLOSE AND EXCITING.

She Was Sailed by Mr. S. P. Cowan and Took the Lord Cup—Only Four Entries, One of Which Withdrew. Next Event September 7th.

The yacht "Sadie," Captain S. P. Cowan, won the race in the August regatta of the Carolina Yacht Club at Wrightsville Beach yesterday afternoon over the Bank's Channel course. She finished just seventeen seconds ahead of her next nearest competitor in one of the most exciting races of the season. By her victory the "Sadie" has won the Lord Cup and will retain it for one year.

The regatta has been postponed from time to time for various reasons and there were only four entries yesterday. The crowd, however, was large and the interest intense. Between three of the boats it was a toss of the coin as to which would win. The fourth yacht, the "Emma," sailed by Dr. Geo. C. Worth, withdrew. The other entries were the "Yomalee," Capt. George Davis; the "Question," Capt. R. A. Parsley, and the "Sadie," Capt. S. P. Cowan.

The starters were Capt. Henry Savage and Col. W. A. Johnson, and victory was declared in favor of the "Sadie."

The record made by each yacht is as follows:

"Sadie," Capt. S. P. Cowan; start, 4:50; finish, 6:40.45; elapsed, 1:50.45.

"Yomalee," Capt. George Davis, start, 4:50.10; finish, 6:42.37; elapsed, 1:52.27.

"Question," Capt. R. A. Parsley; start, 4:50.10; finish, 6:41.12; elapsed, 1:51.02.

"Emma," Dr. Geo. C. Worth; start, 4:54; withdrew.

The next regatta of the club, and the last for this season, will be sailed on the afternoon of September 7th.

Killed a Fine Buck.

Mr. H. E. Newbury, Jr., killed a fine buck weighing about 200 pounds near Magnolia Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Newbury was on a stand and the buck came galloping toward him. Two loads of shot brought him down.

Real Estate Transfer.

A deed was filed for record yesterday transfering from Enoch Hansley, grand master of lodge No. 1, United Sons and Daughters, to John D. Southerland for $120, tract of land on Lloyd's Creek containing 33 acres, more or less.

Frank Newsom in Charlotte.

[Statesville Landmark, 27th.]

"Mrs. L. C. Martin, wife of the late Col. W. J. Martin, of the faculty of Davidson College, died suddenly at her home at Davidson yesterday afternoon. She had been in failing health for some time but the news of her death was a surprise.

Martin, died several years ago. Four children, two sons and two daughters, survive. They are Mr. Miles C. Martin, of Texas; Dr. W. J. Martin, of the faculty of Davidson College, and Misses Mary and Lucy Martin of Davidson."

(Mrs. Martin is survived by two sisters in this city, the only remaining members of a family of eight. They are Mrs. S. E. Toon, mother of Wilmington's esteemed townsmen Messrs. W. P. and Luther Toon, and Mrs. Isabel Robinson.

BY WILLIAM H. BERNARD

WILMINGTON, N. C.

THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 29.

JUMPING ON BABCOCK.

The Republican leaders, who have not the remotest idea of letting the tariff question come up for discussion in Congress if they can prevent it, are doing all they can to bluff Representative Babcock, who says he is going to introduce a bill to put upon the free list all articles made by trusts, exported and sold in other countries at a lower price than the same articles are sold to purchasers in this country. He had scarcely announced his purpose when Senator Hanna, in a published interview, jumped on him and declared that if such a bill were passed the steel manufacturers in Canada would be dumping steel into New England and would ruin our steel makers, although our steel makers boast that they can make steel cheaper than it can be made in any other country in the world. Senator Hanna, however, disposed of the Babcock movement by pronouncing it so absurd that it was not "worthy of serious consideration." Mr. Hanna is very close to Mr. McKinley.

Senator Depew, who has just returned from Europe, had himself interviewed on the question of tariff legislation as it would apply to trusts, and declared that a reduction of duties, or putting trust made articles on the free list, is just what the European manufacturers are longing for and hope to see, for then, he says, the European manufacturers can dump their surplus on this country — just as our protected manufacturers dump their surplus stocks on Europe. He does not explain the particular process by which they could do that when our manufacturers are shipping their goods to the countries where these manufacturers operate and are selling them for less than the home made articles sell for, and are underselling these same manufacturers in the markets of the world where they compete. If our manufacturers can ship goods to the other side of the globe and sell them as low or lower than their European competitors can, why should they fear the competition of these manufacturies in this market when the goods made in Europe must be shipped across three thousand miles of ocean? Mr. Depew didn't explain how they would do that. But he wasn't in an explanatory mood, he was simply talking to create a sentiment against the Babcock proposition. Mr. Depew, by the way, is another gentleman who stands close to Mr. McKinley, close enough to give him a grand send off for a third term, without a preliminary understanding with Mr. McKinley, who was somewhat embarrassed by it, for if permitted to go along without any word from him it might strain the cordial relations between him and his friend Hanna, who is squinting in the direction of the White House himself, and expects Mr. McKinley's co-operation in getting there.

The next jumper of national reputation is General Grosvenor, of Ohio, who spent the Summer in Europe and reached home a few days ago. He had hardly landed when an interview with him on shipboard by a correspondent of the Philadelphia Press (an organ of the President, controlled by a member of his Cabinet), who crossed the ocean with him, was published in the Press. That there might be no mistakes Gen. Grosvenor wrote the interview himself. The gist of the pronunciamento is contained in the first three paragraphs, which read thus:

"I read with some interest Mr. Babcock's letter, written from Marienbad, Austria, to a Milwaukee friend and published in the Press. I am glad to see that the writer has fled from his former position in regard to changes in the tariff, but I regret to observe that he has taken up a much more indefensible one. Despite his assurance that he is a Republican protectionist, it will appear by a careful reading of his paper that he is a free trader upon all important points. He is a theoretical protectionist, but a practical free trader.

"The bill introduced in the Fifty-sixth Congress, second session, by Mr. Babcock was intended to place upon the free list all the manufactures of iron and steel coming to this country, the like of which are made in the United States by a 'trust.' The wording of the bill said so and left nothing to construction. If enacted into law it would have admitted in our ports free of duty the products of the great German trusts and those of the trusts of all other countries. Such a law would be impossible of enforcement, for the reasons which suggest themselves to any intelligent person.

"Shortly before Mr. Babcock sailed to Europe in an authentic interview, printed in the Washington and other newspapers, he said that he would introduce in the House in December a bill to place on the free list all the articles coming to us and the like of which are manufactured by any 'trust' in the United States, and all the long Summer since the free trade papers of the United States have been giving the idea hearty support. But now it appears Mr. Babcock has received new light, and cheerfully abandons his former position and writes a long letter to show how he has been misunderstood, and also to redefine his position. The preamble to the new suggestion rehearses that formerly he had adopted the protective idea for the purpose of building up our industries to enable them to supply our own wants, but now he says that it has come to pass that some articles, the like of which we formerly imported we now can produce and export, and he proceeds to propose an act to place all such articles on the free list of our tariff law. The rankest free trader in all the land could ask for nothing better than this. The test is to be that he can now sell a certain article in a foreign market. When this fact is found to exist the tariff is to be taken off and all the world is to invited to invade our markets with their products."

Like Brutus, Gen. Grosvenor, who is also very close to Mr. McKinley, is an "honorable man" and would resent it as an insult if he were called an untruthful man, and yet his statement, written by himself, on ship board where he had little interruption and all the time he wanted for reflection, is a deliberate and premeditated misrepresentation of Mr. Babcock's position on the tariff question. He does not propose to have put upon the free list "all articles manufactured by trusts." He has never once said that was his intention, but to move to put upon the free list all articles of steel or iron, or in which steel and iron enter, which are manufactured by the trusts, exported and sold in foreign countries at a lower price than the trusts demand and receive for the same articles when sold in the home market. There is all the difference in the world in these two propositions and Gen. Grosvenor knows it, for Mr. Babcock supports his position by asserting that if the American trusts can manufacture and sell in other countries in competition with foreign competitors, at as low or lower prices than they can, and at a considerably less price than they demand at home, it is proof conclusive that they have nothing to fear from foreign competition, and, therefore, do not need tariff protection, the only result of which is to enable them to extort more money from their home purchasers. That's Mr. Babcock's position and Gen. Grosvenor knew it when he wrote that interview, and yet "honorable" and truthful man as he is he deliberately misrepresents it. He was too anxious to jump on Mr. Babcock, who proposes to jump on the trusts.

The fact is the Republican leaders like Hanna, Depew and Grosvenor realize that there are a good many Republicans who think like Babcock does and they are, therefore, trying to bluff him and hold him down before the anti-trust movement becomes too strong to be resisted.

PARTISAN IDIOCY.

The last issue of the Raleigh Caucasian clips a fool editorial from the Chatham Citizen, a rabid Republican organ, in which it virtually charges that the recent assaults upon white women by negro brutes in Mecklenburg county were some of the fruits of Democratic rule in that county. A man so filled with mean partisan rancor and so lacking in common sense and decency might be excused on the ground of hopeless lunacy or total depravity, but the man who does the writing for the Caucasian practically endorses this idiocy and makes it, in connection with a dispatch from Newbern stating that the criminal docket for the court then in session "is exceedingly heavy, covering all forms of crime," the subject of the following ridiculous comment:

"This is a sample of the news from every quarter of the State? What is the cause of it? But how could any other harvest be expected from the seeds of crime sown by the lawless reign of Red Shirts in the last two campaigns."

The Caucasian has dumped upon its confiding dupes a great deal of partisan rot, but for downright malignity, narrow-minded partisanship, and towering stupidity, this caps the climax. Who commits these crimes, which are so appallingly on the increase? Red Shirts? If so, the records don't show it. But the records do show that about nine-tenths if not more of them are perpetrated by negroes, with whom the editor of the Caucasian has been in political affiliation for several years.

How is it about Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and other States, where the Red Shirt is not in it and has not entered upon the stage at all? Whence comes the deluge of crime in those States, where the devil seems to have taken possession of the black allies of the Caucasian, as he has in this State.

If this partisan trifler with common sense would turn his attention to trying to reform and lift up his black allies, and cease his stupid rot about Red Shirts, he would be figuring in a more respectable and perhaps more useful role.

WILL FARMING PAY?

We have from time to time made mention of successful farmers in this and in other States, who have become rich farming. A short while ago we noted the success of a Maryland farmer who began as a farm laborer and now owns about thirty farms and will have this year a crop of 100,000 bushels of wheat, 150,000 bushels of corn, in addition to other crops, and owns several hundred head of fine cattle, horses and mules.

Yesterday we made mention of a farmer in Georgia who began as a renter after the war and now owns six thousand acres, all bought with the earnings from his farms.

The last issue of the Hillsboro Observer speaks of a visit to Occoneechee farm, owned by Col. Julian Carr, and managed by Col. R. S. Abernethy, a self-made man, now about thirty-four years old, who at the age of twenty-one was working for $8 a month. He is to-day the owner of one the finest farms in Orange county, is in independent circumstances, and was employed as the manager of Col. Carr's 700-acre farm on account of the success he had achieved on his own.

Such instances as these are not rare enough to be curiosities, for there are a good many men in the South, and in North Carolina, who have become rich farming, but they are men who get out of the ruts and farm not only with their hands but with their brains. There is a a good deal in the land, of course, but as the Arkansas poet expresses it, "There is more in the man than in the lan'." The farmer who understands his business, and has the industry and method to follow it up right, will bring surprising results out of very ordinary land, while the shiftless plodder will soon ruin the best of land and get hungry on it.

In Germany the doctors have struck on a new device for feeding iron in disguise to invalids. Carbonate of iron with sugar is stirred into mush on which hens are fed, the iron goes into the eggs, and the egg eater takes it in mild, broken doses without even suspecting it. That may be all right, but they may go on with that kind of hen feeding until the cook will have to use a cold chisel to get through the shell of the egg.

BOOK NOTICES.

"The Eternal City," by Hall Caine, is the title of a very interesting novel just issued from the presses of D. Appleton & Company, 72 Fifth avenue, New York. It is a book of 638 pages, clearly printed, neatly and substantially bound in cloth. This is a clever production of one the cleverest writers of the day.

The September number of the Atlantic Monthly presents a varied and interesting list of contents of a literary, scientific, political and art character. There are some sixteen papers in all, many of them able and all interesting. Published by Houghton, Mifflin & Co., No. 6 Park street, Boston.

The Century Magazine for September is superb in illustrations, and filled with a splendid presentation of reading matter. Among other interesting papers are "The Crown of the Continent," "The City of Light," "Daniel Webster" and "Louis Philippe in the United States." Published by the Century Company, Union square, New York.

Frank Leslie's Monthly for September is interesting, with an entertaining list of contents well illustrated. Among the articles is a descriptive one, illustrated, of Sir Thomas Lipton's boats, Shamrock I and Shamrock II, the latter of which is now at New York to contest for the America cup. Published by The Frank Leslie Publishing House, 141-147 Fifth Avenue, New York.

CURRENT COMMENT

—— The statement that there is a scarcity of beef is a lie given out to excuse the increase in price contemplated. The Beef Trust is a concern, like many others, that is protected from foreign competition by our tariff, and it is not obliged to make any excuse for its "hair-raising" programme, but it does.—Brooklyn Citizen, Dem.

—— The little city of Huntsville, Ala., is about to secure its tenth cotton mill, which will be a very large and fine one. It will be a pioneer in the South in the lines of shirtings and ginghams, goods that are not yet made to any appreciable amount in this section. Huntsville is fast becoming a leading center of the spinning trade.—Chattanooga Times, Ind.

—— The limit appears to have been reached in building big ships. There is room enough for the monsters at sea, but there are few ports where they can get enough to the land to be cheaply loaded and unloaded. The increasing draught of steamships of late years has compelled the expenditure of many millions of dollars in deepening the channels of approach to the harbors and wharves of maritime cities.—Philadelphia Record, Dem.

—— A dispatch from Manila says that the town of Apparri gave Governor Taft the greatest ovation he has yet received, and that Governor Taft promised Apparri that it should be a port of entry and should receive a large appropriation for the improvement of its harbor. It does not appear, however, whether the ovation was given on account of the promise of an appropriation, or whether the promise of an appropriation was made on account of the ovation.—Charleston News and Courier, Dem.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, Pa., was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in the back and sides, and no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters, and to my great joy and surprise the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at R. R. BELLAMY'S drug store. †

OFFICE OF D. H. HARDY, Sec. of State, AUSTIN, TEX., NOV. 21, 1900.

I have found Dr. Moffett's TEETHINA a splendid remedy and aid for my teething children. When my oldest boy a teething child, every succeeding day warned us that we would inevitably lose him. I happened upon TEETHINA, and began at once administering it to him, and his improvement was marked in 24 hours, and from that day on he recuperated. I have constantly kept it and used it since with my children, and have taken great pleasure in sounding its praises to all mothers of young children. I found it invaluable even after the teething period was passed.

— Kinston Free Press: Thomas Brown, colored, says he was held up and robbed at the Briery last night about 12 o'clock. He said two colored men jumped on him and beat him unmercifully, took all the money he had, $1.25, and skipped. Brown presented a pitiful appearance as he walked into town this morning. His clothes were torn and he was cut in half a dozen places.

— Greensboro Record: Just before Judge Shaw adjourned court for the term on Saturday afternoon, Roscoe Murrow, the young man convicted of intimacy with a girl under the age of fourteen was sentenced to serve seven years on the roads or pay $1,500 to the use of the girl and $500 to the county school fund, through his counsel, decided to serve out his sentence instead of paying out and was taken to jail at once. To-day he was sent to the roads. It is a most remarkable case. Young Murrow still stoutly protests his innocence and says he would serve fourteen years before he would pay her a cent. He is 22 years old and when he shall have completed his term he will be 29 years of age. It is said that his father can easily raise the money, but that the son declared he would not allow him to do so, protesting that he was innocent and to pay out was not the proper thing to do. The sorrow of his mother and wife as well as other relatives was pitiful, that of the mother especially, who hoped for acquittal to the very last. It is clear that public opinion sustains the jury. All of Mr. Murrow's friends told him after the first day of the trial that his son would be convicted—that there was no other hope from the evidence adduced. One thing is sure, if he is innocent, he is one of the most injured men who ever lived.

Why biscuit get stale

It's as simple as A B C. The atmosphere contains moisture, which is an enemy to crackers and biscuit. Now you see why biscuit or crackers exposed to the air in a box or barrel go stale and grow musty. To overcome this an inventor created the In-er-seal Patent Package, an ingenious combination of specially prepared cardboard and paper so peculiarly folded and securely sealed that it keeps out moisture and all kinds of badness. The In-er-seal Patent Package is used and controlled exclusively by the National Biscuit Company to keep their products fresh and good.

When you order Soda, Milk, Graham, Oatmeal, Butter Thin and Saltine Biscuit, Vanilla and Banquet Wafers, Ginger Snaps, Sultana Fruit, and Sea Foam, don't forget to ask for the kind that come in the In-er-seal Patent Package.

The In-er-seal Patent Package is identified by this Trade Mark on each end.

Click of the Bushmen.

In talking the bushmen give the impression of being in the transition stage, between the click and throat method, of conversing. Imagine the hollow, indistinct utterances such as proceed from a reckless mouth, relieved by numerous clicks, and you know as much of this language as I am able to give you. In 1896 a few of these people, copying the Malye, adopted the village system and cereal cultivation for the first time. The great bulk of them still exist on most primitive lines. They wander about the bush without cover, sleeping where they happen to be when the sun goes down and eating what they find, mainly roots, snakes and berries, as being easily acquired. In wet weather they place a piece of detached bark over their head and leave the rest of the body to look after itself.—Geographical Journal.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—The market for cotton futures opened firm, with prices one point lower to four points higher, and immediately following the call displayed decided strength on brisk room covering, moderate outside buying and absence of selling pressure. Liverpool, at one time five to seven points lower, turned firm upon finding our market unsympathetic to weakness and gained much of the initial decline. But by the time the foreigners decided to buy cotton, local traders were turning for profits and during the next half hour the two markets were working in opposite directions. The decline here was to 7.83 on October and 7.86 on January. Once more Liverpool tried to conform to our ruling but missed again, for covering developed on the break here and rallied the market five to six points, despite the fact that Liverpool closed easy at about the low figures of the day. The domestic influences were quite the same as heretofore—bullish crop reports, weather advices, mill accounts and spot cotton trade. The near by holidays were not calculated to stimulate new business and timid longs sold wherever opportunity offered, preferring to assume a neutral position during Saturday, Sunday and Monday. The South sold here in the afternoon, when the market had a turn for the worse, easing off to the low level of the day. There were comparatively few supporting orders and sentiment was inclined to favor a reaction on the idea that Liverpool would come lower to-morrow. Rumors that August notices were to be issued to-morrow in large numbers helped to weaken bull convictions. The market was finally steady, with prices net four to six points lower.

WAYS OF MAKING A LIVING.

Many Persons Resort to Singular Methods of Industry.

Many men make their living by buying up the cast off wrapping paper and pasteboard boxes from the janitors or large stores and sorting and selling the paper and boxes to east side dealers. Many others buy the newspapers that accumulate in office buildings and sell them for wrapping paper and even turn them into money at the paper mills, though the price paid is low.

A business peculiar to the east side is that of buying and selling pawn tickets. The men in this line seldom redeem the pledges and realize on their sale. They buy the tickets at 5 to 10 per cent of the amount named on the ticket and sell them at 10 to 25 per cent of the amount loaned. Only articles of considerable value are inspected before the sale or purchase of the ticket, for the pawnbrokers charge 25 cents for any such inspection. If the face value of the ticket is small, the speculator relies on the judgment of the pawnbroker.

A profitable business is done in old metals. If a dwelling is torn down, the speculator receives from the contractor the right to all the old metal in the debris, sometimes for a mere nominal sum, as in most cases the contractor is glad to have it carried away. The debris is carried away and sorted, and the copper and lead are disposed of at a handsome profit.

A number of men are engaged in a door to door canvass, buying small articles of silverware. The poorest people, in the most wretched parts of the city, usually have something in silver, a spoon, a charm or a thimble it may be, and in case of distress, if eviction for nonpayment of rent is impending or ready money is needed for immediate medicine or for drink, the silver buyer makes a profitable purchase.

There is also the man who peddles cinders to people too poor to afford coal. He obtains his supply from the places where the elevated road dumps its ashes, picking out the half burned coals and peddling them in a push cart.

An old Italian who for nearly 50 years has been peddling matches in restaurants and barrooms, especially in the Tenderloin, is reputed to have grown rich and is said to own several houses. Other types are fast dying out, such as the man who used to peddle sawdust to saloon keepers, but an Irishman who has supplied many offices and shops with feather dusters for the past 34 years is still at his trade. These dusters are made in Vesey street. Such turkey feathers as cannot do duty as ostrich feathers are bought in Canal street and resold to the duster makers in Vesey street.—New York Post.

FALL OF AN EMPLOYEE.

The Comment of an Aristocratic Railway President.

When Charles M. Hays assumed the general managership of the Grand Trunk railway of Canada, he inaugurated a reign of democracy over that system. Americanized Grand Trunk officialdom and made "business" the password which opened the doors of the most exclusive and hitherto inaccessible sanctums. Sir Henry Tyler, the president of the road before Mr. Hays received his appointment, was an aristocrat of such keen sensitiveness that he shunned all personal interviews with the employees. Upon his official tours, when contact with the men was unavoidable, Sir Henry was accompanied by a superintendent, who acted as his guide and interpreter. Then if Sir Henry found it necessary to put questions to an employee he would talk to him through the superintendent, and the man thus addressed was expected to submit his reply to the superintendent.

On his last tour over the road Sir Henry arrived at an early hour at a small but important station in western Ontario, and in the course of his inspection of the company's buildings Sir Henry went into the dispatcher's room and found a fire burning in the stove.

"What's this?" Sir Henry exclaimed, turning to the superintendent. "What's the necessity for a flash heah?"

A dispatcher who was standing near volunteered an explanation and in so doing presumed to address himself to the president of the Grand Trunk company. "You see, Sir Henry," he said, "we dispatchers came on at 10 o'clock last night, and it got pretty cold here along about 3 o'clock this morning, so we started up a fire, and it hasn't got burned out yet."

Sir Henry drew himself up, inserted his monocle in a scornful eye, looked the man over with elegant disdain and, turning to the superintendent, exclaimed, "What have we heah?"

The collapse of the dispatcher was instantaneous and complete. "But, say," he says now, "if I hadn't a wife and family to support, I'd have said a few words to that nabob. 'What have we heah?' I guess he thought he was a little papier mache idol with a glass eye," all right."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

HEIGHT ADDED ON THE HEELS.

Way of Helping Those Who Think Themselves Too Short.

A young man with two very bad feet went into the shop of an orthopedic shoemaker the other day to see if he couldn't get something in the way of footwear that he could put on his feet without suffering pain. After attending to his own needs he began a scrutiny of the things in the shop and concluded that there were a good many people in this world who were worse off than he. Among other remarkable looking shoes was a pair with tremendously high heels. The heels were not French shaped, tapering to a point, but solid and substantial, like those of ordinary walking shoes except for their excessive height. That part of the shoe which comes up around the Achilles tendon was also of great height and gave the shoe as it sat on the floor a most peculiar appearance. The young man asked what was the matter with the unfortunate who had to wear such shoes.

"He wants to get a job in the post-office," said the shoemaker. "He is too short by nature, and he wants me to make him longer without any one being the wiser. Those shoes look strange now, but as soon as their owner gets them on his feet they will look all right, and you could not tell unless you examined him closely that he was standing fully two inches off the ground. Most of the height is added inside the shoe. It seems that in order to get this job he has to be two inches higher than he really is. He is naturally very short. He came to me and asked me if I could help him out. I told him I could if he had the money to pay me. You know, skill in shoemaking costs like skill in any other line of business. I told him that for $35 I could fix him up. Now he will be all right if they only measure him with his shoes on. If they don't, he's out $35.

"I do a good deal of that sort of business. There are a lot of people who are very sensitive about their lack of height. This is especially true of little men, but there are some women who want to look stately, and they do so by having their shoes built up inside. They are good customers. Vain men and women always are, for they are willing to pay any price to satisfy their vanity. The trick is rather a difficult one to do so that it is not noticeable. It is harder for men than for women because there are no skirts to help to conceal any outward peculiarities. The average shoemaker has trouble in accomplishing the end desired, and so they come to be and pay fancy prices because they know that I make all sorts of peculiar things that are called shoes. If they are willing to pay the money, I suppose I ought to be glad of it instead of moralizing upon it, as it is part of my bread and butter."—New York Sun.

A New Enemy to Corn.

Friend Agee sends me a small brownish black beetle with the statement that it helped to destroy a field of young corn. It has no common name, its scientific name being Myochrous denticollis. It attacks the young plants just below the surface of the ground, eating off the stem, somewhat after the manner of cutworms. Nothing is known of its habits or where it breeds, writes Entomologist F. M. Webster to the Ohio Farmer.

DONE IN AMERICAN STYLE.

Up to Date Advertising In the Land of the Rising Sun.

One day when Mr. George Ade was out walking with a guide in the naval quarter of Kioto, Japan, he observed coming down the street the head of a great procession. Interested at once, he paused to watch the procession pass. On they came, gaudy in apparel, but grave in face, flaunting flags and great banners, on which were Japanese inscriptions. The mournful chant which announced their approach was broken only when the kettledrums or tamtams were pounded or the cymbals clashed. As the weird and solemn procession approached Mr. Ade uncovered and bowed his head reverently, it being his custom and settled principle invariably to show the highest respect for the rites and ceremonies of the peoples with whom he comes in contact. He is a firm believer in the doctrine, "When in Rome, do as the Romans do." His face was very grave.

The procession was long, nearly a block in length, but Mr. Ade remained uncovered during the entire time of its passing. Once or twice he glanced at the guide out of the corner of his eye. He thought he saw on the man's face a puzzled expression. Finally, when the procession had passed, he replaced his hat and addressed himself to the wondering guide.

"Buddha?" he inquired.

The guide looked more puzzled.

"Shinto?" then asked Mr. Ade.

"I do not understand," the guide finally said.

"Was not that a funeral procession?" inquired Mr. Ade.

A light began to dawn upon the guide's face. He almost smiled as he replied:

"No; tooth powder!"

The Japanese, it seems, are rapidly learning American ways, even in advertising. A visitor to Japan may now see, as in some portions of America, almost every hillside plastered with advertisements. They are very enterprising, and, as this incident indicates, one of the advertising methods employed is that of having a procession march through the streets.—Saturday Evening Post.

The Morning Star.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 29.

NOT SATISFACTORY TO FOREIGN MINISTERS.

Imperial Edict Forbidding Importation of Arms Into China—British Want More Troops.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

PEKIN, August 28.—The Imperial edict forbidding the importation of arms and munitions of war is not satisfactory to the foreign ministers. It ignores the vital fact that the prohibition applies to the government and that it is part of the Chinese punishment. The edict makes it appear to be merely the government's voluntary act, prohibiting Chinese subjects from importing arms and munitions, as the country is disturbed by brigands.

Later in the day it was announced that the ministers had decided to accept the edict, but to omit the first paragraph in publishing it as part of the appendix to the protocol.

It is understood that the British minister Sir Ernest Satow, proposed to return the edict to the Chinese peace commissioners as unsatisfactory, but the proposal failed. Several of the diplomats, including Mr. Rockhill, opposed this feature of the protocol. Among their reasons was that it was impossible of enforcement, and that it was illogical, while insisting that the Chinese government maintain order to deprive it of the means of so doing.

LONDON, August 28.—A special dispatch from Shanghai says the British authorities at Pekin have telegraphed for more British troops.

BOERS MURDER PRISONERS.

Sworn Evidence — Severe Retaliatory Measures Suggested to Lord Kitchener by British War Office.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, August 28.—A dispatch from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, August 25th, says:

"Sworn evidence has been brought to my notice by General Elliott that on June 6th Lieutenant Mair, of the New South Wales artillery, and Privates Harvey and Blunt, were shot down after surrendering at Graspan, near Reitz. I have forwarded to Botha and Steyn copies of these statements."

The War Office has telegraphed to Lord Kitchener as follows:

"We understand that you have not yet received satisfactory assurances respecting the murder of our wounded at Vlakfontein. In view of the occurrences referred to in your telegram of August 25th, we are of the opinion that you should notify by proclamation that the members of any commando by which such an outrage is committed who may be captured and after trial proved to have been present on such an occasion, will be held guilty, whether they actually committed the deed or not; that the leader of the commando will be sentenced to death, and that the other members will be punished with death or less, according to the degree of complicity."

POSTOFFICE ROBBED.

The Thieves Attempted to Set Fire to the Building, But Failed.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

IRWINVILLE, GA., Aug. 28.—Thieves broke into the postoffice at Mystic, a small station on the Tifton & Northeastern railroad, last night, rifled the cash drawer and stole two money order books. When they left they at tempted to set fire to the building by taking the chimney from a lamp and setting the flames against a pile of papers. The papers were packed tight and when the postmaster opened the office early this morning they were smoldering, but had not broken into flames. There is no clue to the identity of the thieves.

SHAMROCK THE SECOND.

Fourth Trial Spin of the Cup Challenger in New York Harbor.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—The fourth trial spin of the Shamrock II, in these waters, sailed to-day, was not attended with any exciting incidents. The yacht did not go outside Sandy Hook as expected, but sailed from Southwest Spit Buoy to Staten Island, twice during the four hours she was out, covering a distance of about thirty miles. The Shamrock covered the first half of her course in one hour, fifteen minutes, against a strong tide, and the second half in just fifty minutes. This was considered by the experts to be very good work, considering the breeze she had.

NORTH CAROLINA'S SHARE.

The Apportionment of the Militia Appropriation to the Southern States.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—The apportionment of the militia appropriation to the Southern States is as follows:

Alabama, $23,366; Arkansas, $16,993; Florida, 8,496; Georgia, $27,614; Kentucky, $27,614; Louisiana, $16,993; Maryland, $16,993; Mississippi, $19,117; Missouri, $36,111; North Carolina, $23,366; South Carolina, $19,117; Tennessee, $25,490; Texas, $31,862; Virginia, $25,490.

FREIGHT TRAIN WRECKED.

Engineer Killed and Fireman and a Trainman Injured.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MARIETTA, GA., Aug. 28.—A trestle on the Atlanta, Knoxville & Northern railroad, near Ellijay, Ga., gave way last night as a freight train was passing over it. The engine of the train turned completely over, killing Engineer Ben Smith and injuring perhaps fatally Fireman King and a train man.

STEEL COMBINE CONTINUES TO GAIN

Announces That It Will Run All the Plants With Non-Union Men.

THE SAY THE STRIKE IS OVER

Strike Leaders Declare to the Contrary. Their Men All Firm—Mills Started Are Doing But Little Effective Work—Arbitration Talk.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

PITTSBURG, August 28.—The Steel Corporation continued making gains in this district and to-day added enough men to its force at the Star plant to insure the working of two mills, double turn, night and day from now on. The management claims that the entire plant will be in full force to-morrow. The strikers claim that they cannot be made good and the claim is being made merely as a bluff.

In pursuance of its announced plan to run all of its plants absolutely non-union, the American Tin Plate Company to-day commenced advertising for non-union men to go to work. All applicants are offered the highest wages and permanent jobs, but in every case the application must be made personally and the applicant declare himself free from all union control. The company has not as yet made the attempt to start either the Monongahela or Demmler plants, but announce that both will be started soon.

When asked to-day what he thought of the Tin Plate Company's avowed intention of breaking away from the union entirely, President Shaffer of the Amalgamated Association said:

"Where will they get the men to run their plants? If we thought the men could be secured the threat might frighten us. Until we are assured that these are forthcoming we will keep our nerve."

Steel Men's Declaration.

The latest official declaration from steel sources is that the strike can now be settled only by the men going back to the mills. The position the officials take, is it is said that the strike is over so far as their dealing with the strikers as a body is concerned. They want workmen for their idle mills and men who want work can have it for the asking at wages paid before the shut down. They may be union men or not, but the union can have no say as to their work or wages.

Another Arbitration Scheme.

Notwithstanding the well defined position taken by the steel corporation as to a settlement, another arbitration scheme was launched this evening by Simon Burns, president of the Window Glass Workers' Association. Mr. Burns proposes an arbitration committee selected from among such men as Archbishop Ireland, Bishop Potter, Seth Low, M. A. Hanna and others of like prominence, who, after having the entire matter explained to them by both sides to the controversy, shall have absolute authority to settle upon terms of settlement. Their decision to be final and accepted by both parties.

Mr. Burns says he has President Shaffer's sanction for the move, and if the corporation will agree to the plan the strike will be declared off at once. None of the steel people here will discuss the matter in any way.

Strike Leaders' Claims.

Mr. Shaffer declared to-night that the strike, in spite of the claims of the other side to the contrary, is proceeding satisfactorily and his association is making such serious inroads upon the corporation's business that it will be compelled sooner or later to come to terms. His men, he says, are firm all along the line and are determined to stand for their rights to the end. He says the few mills that have been started are doing but little effective work. The fact that the corporation is adding to its force daily does not worry the president, he believes them to be either unskilled or poor workmen, who will be a draw-back rather than a help to their employers.

The steel people have nothing to say but point to the mills at work and the product turned out. Actions, they say, speak louder than words.

CONVICTED OF MURDER.

George Howard, Member of a Mob Which Lynched a Negro, Sentenced to Life Imprisonment.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WETUMPKA, ALA., Aug. 28.—George Howard, a member of the mob which lynched Robert White, a negro, in this county some months ago, was to day convicted of murder in the first degree and was sentenced to life imprisonment.

The case was called in the Circuit Court to day. After the State's evidence was submitted the attorney for the defence announced that Howard desired to make a statement. Upon being sworn Howard admitted his participation in the lynching, and gave the names of the members of the mob, which numbered thirteen. After being out almost two hours the jury returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree and fixed the penalty at life imprisonment.

Howard is one of the most prominent farmers in his section of the State. White was accused of shooting a white man.

The case against six others, accused of being members of this mob are now being tried. All others who are alleged to have been members of the mob have left the country.

MANILA, August 28.—Owing to the heavy rains active operations against the insurgents in the island of Samar have been temporarily suspended. Captain Harry C. The insurgents fled. A few prisoners were captured and two Americans were wounded.

CARRIE NATION IN NEW YORK

Interview With Police Commissioner Murphy—Called at John L. Sullivan's Saloon

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, August 28.—Mrs. Carrie Nation arrived in this city to day. She had an interview with Police Commissioner Murphy, during which he told her that she would be arrested if she violated the law in this city. Mrs. Nation also called at John L. Sullivan's saloon to see the ex-pugilist in reference to a statement he was alleged to have made to the effect that he would "throw her into the sewer." Sullivan sent down word that he was ill, but made an appointment to meet her next Monday. She then went to see Archbishop Corrigan, but he was out of town.

When Mrs. Nation entered police headquarters she was shown at once to Commissioner Murphy's room. In opening her interview with the commissioner she said she had called on him for an account of his stewardship, and asked if he did not think New York was an awful wicked place. The commissioner replied in the negative, and Mrs. Nation repeated the question as an assertion, whereupon Mr. Murphy requested her to stop, saying he would not discuss the matter with her. She continued, however, to ply the commissioner with questions concerning drinking places, all of which he refused to answer. Mrs. Nation said she had come here to do the city some good.

"You don't know what you are talking about," said Commissioner Murphy. "Go back to Kansas and stay there. If you want to do some thing, why don't you do it for your husband?"

"I have no husband now," said Mrs. Nation. "I suppose you know all about that matter."

"Oh, yes," said Commissioner Murphy. "I congratulate Mr. Nation. He ought to be a happy man now."

"Why don't you want to discuss Sunday saloons?" asked Mrs. Nation, and the commissioner replied, angrily:

"Because I don't want to. I want to sit here and be lectured."

"What, do you mean to say that you wont discuss good morals in New York? Don't you want to talk about the closing up of these hell holes and murder shops? Do you think I am crazy?"

"Yes, I do," responded Murphy.

"Mrs. Nation then addressed Mr. Murphy as "Father," which term the commissioner warmly resented. But the Kansas reformer persisted.

"Father, don't you think a little 'hatchetation' would be good for New York?"

"If you violate the laws, I'll have you locked up," Mr. Murphy warned her.

Commissioner Murphy finally terminated the interview by beckoning to his secretary, who escorted Mrs. Nation from the room. Before leaving town Mrs. Nation said she would return Sunday and visit the "Tenderloin" and "see everything that was open."

ANOTHER WOMAN MURDERED

Miss Mary Henderson Assaulted and Killed by a Negro Near Columbus, Mo.—Posses in Pursuit.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

COLUMBUS, MO., Aug. 28.—Miss Mary Henderson, aged forty, was assaulted and killed last evening by William Francis, colored, at the farm house of her brother-in-law, Charles E. Hyatt, near here. Francis fled, but hundreds of men are scouring the entire country and his capture and death are considered almost certain.

Miss Henderson resided with the Hyatts on the farm near Columbus, in the heart of the richest agricultural district in the State. Last evening the Hyatts drove to the home of friends for a brief visit. Francis, who had been a trusted employe on the place for several years, was left to his own devices. Shortly after sunset he entered the farm house for his evening meal. Miss Henderson prepared it and was about to call the negro, when he stepped into the kitchen and attacked the defenceless woman. She screamed loudly and long for help, but none was at hand. The negro was driven finally by her desperate resistance to the yard in the rear of the house, but in the end she was overpowered.

When the Hyatts returned Miss Henderson was found lying near the house with a bullet hole above the left ear. The only horse remaining on the place had also been killed in his stall, evidently to hinder pursuit. Miss Henderson is said to have survived long enough to inform her relatives of her assailant.

This announcement removed all doubts from the citizens here, and half a dozen posses were immediately formed. Every inch of territory in the county is now being scored.

A suspect is under arrest at Independence and another is being pursued near Sedalia. It is practically certain that Francis, if captured, will be burned at the stake.

Not Yet Captured.

KANSAS CITY, MO., Aug. 28.—"Bossie" Francis, the negro who outraged and murdered Miss Mary Henderson, of Columbus, Mo., last night has not yet been captured, but five hundred men are scouring the woods tonight in the vicinity of the crime, and it is said Francis cannot possibly escape. It is not known whether he fled on horseback or on foot, but the pursuit was begun so soon after the discovery of the crime that every outlet from the country was closed promptly. Francis has always lived about Columbus, knows every foot of territory thereabout, and is likely to hide in the bush than to flee to a strange district. The volunteers will hunt all night and will be relieved by others to-morrow. Bloodhounds were sought last night, but were not obtainable while the trail was fresh. Francis will undoubtedly be lynched if caught, but burning at the stake is not advocated, nor have innocent negroes been injured or threatened. Bud Francis, brother of the murderer, took to the woods after the discovery of the crime. He was seen to day near Centerview, and when caught will be strung up, members of the posse say, and compelled to say what he knows of his brother's whereabouts.

UNDER CONTROL.

The Wild Oil Well at Beaumont, Texas, Country Flooded With Oil.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BEAUMONT, TEX., Aug. 28.—The wild Palestine-Beaumont oil well, which is responsible for three deaths, was placed under control to-day without further fatalities by Frederick Chase, who had worked since last night at the task. As the land surrounding the well is covered with oil, the country will be flooded with water. This will, it is believed, carry the oil to the Teches river, whence it will flow into the Gulf of Mexico.

FEARFUL ACCIDENT ON THE DELAWARE

The Excursion Steamboat City of Trenton Blown Up and Burned.

SEVERAL PERSONS PERISHED.

Four Passengers Missing and Over a Score Are Injured, Two Fatally—After the Boiler Exploded the Boat Took Fire and Ran Aground.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

PHILADELPHIA, PA., Aug. 28.—While the steamboat City of Trenton, of the Wilmington Steamboat Company, was on her way from this city to Trenton, N. J., this afternoon her port boiler exploded, killing seven persons and injuring over a score of others. Four passengers are missing, but as many sustained slight injuries it is thought the missing may be among those who did not find it necessary to go to the hospital.

The dead are: J. D. Chew, assistant engineer; Miss Elizabeth Green, Philadelphia; two firemen, names unknown; one deck hand, name unknown; two passengers, names unknown.

Missing: Mrs. John Matthews, Philadelphia; Mrs. Matilda Cross, Philadelphia; two children who were seen to jump overboard.

Injured: Scalded or burned—Thresa Rhein, Philadelphia, fatally; Louis Panchoick, Philadelphia, fatally; J. S. Smith, Camden, N. J.; Mrs. Barrett, Camden, N. J.; Mrs. Anna Hoover, Camden, N. J.; Cecelia Magrogan, Philadelphia; Henry Magrogan, Philadelphia; S. E. Keppart, Philadelphia; Alice Matthews, Philadelphia; Mrs. C. E. Smith, Philadelphia; Bessie Brown, Philadelphia; Edna VanSchack, Philadelphia; Jeanette Reid, Philadelphia; Louisa Robinson, Camden, N. J.; Wilson Mecke, Philadelphia; W. C. Mersbrun, Morrisville, Pa.; J. W. Hastings, Philadelphia; White Lansing, Trenton, N. J.; F. A. Delacey, Philadelphia; Mrs. F. A. Delacey, Philadelphia; Mrs. Caiminade, Philadelphia; Miss Caiminade, Philadelphia; Albert Lee, Philadelphia.

Boat on Fire.

After the explosion the boat took fire and ran aground. To-night she lies a wrecked and blackened hulk in the marshes opposite Torresdale, sixteen miles above this city. Her hold is filled with water, and it is feared more of her passengers and crew may be found in the bottom of the boat when the water is pumped out.

A boat belonging to police department is anchored a short distance from the stranded excursion steamer, pumping the water from the ill-fated vessel.

The City of Trenton makes daily trips between Philadelphia and Trenton. She left the company's wharf at 1:45 o'clock this afternoon, fifteen minutes behind her schedule time. Her passenger list was lighter than usual and she carried very little freight. The vessel was in charge of Capt W. A. Worrell. The other officers were Edward Curry, pilot; J. W. Vanderveer, mate; Edward Murphy, chief engineer; J. D. Chew, assistant engineer, and Clayton Reybold, purser. There were about twelve firemen and deck hands aboard.

Nothing of moment occurred until the boat reached Torresdale. Here the steam pipe connecting with the port boiler burst with a loud report. It was followed by another explosion and this time the port boiler was rent in twain. Scalding steam and water poured into the cabin and sections of the woodwork of the boat were torn away by the force of the explosion.

A Fearful Scene.

Those of the passengers who were not scalded and scarred by the scalding steam and boiling water, were struck by the flying portions of the splintered cabin. Legs and arms were broken and faces and bodies scalded. The screams of the injured could be heard on shore and the cries of those who leaped and were blown into the river were heart-rending.

So great was the force of the explosion that a piano in the upper drawing room of the boat was hurled many feet away from the boat into the river. This proved a fortunate circumstance, for many of the injured passengers. Thrown into the water, scalded and otherwise injured so that they were rendered helpless, they clung to the piano which had fallen into the shallow water until rescued.

When the explosion occurred Mate Vanderveer and Pilot Curry were in the pilot house. Both were hurled with terrific force from the little enclosure, and the wheel on the star board side refused to work, while that on the port side, for some unaccountable reason, began revolving with lightning-like rapidity. As a result the rudder turned the bow of the boat towards the shore and she quickly ran aground, fastening herself in the mud.

Some Were Rescued.

By this time the vessel had caught fire and those of the passengers who were still aboard were compelled to leap for their lives. Fortunately the water was not more than four feet deep and many of the victims of the disaster were able to wade ashore. Some, however, who were too seriously injured to help themselves, were rescued by members of the boat clubs whose houses line the river front at this point.

The captain and crew of the boat conducted themselves as heroes. They rendered all the assistance possible to the injured and Captain Worrell was the last man to leave the boat. All of the seriously injured were hastily conveyed to the hospital at the house of correction at Holmesburg, about three miles below Torresdale.

Assistance Rendered.

As soon as possible word was sent to this city for the police boats Samuel H. Ashbridge and Edwin S. Stuart, and the emergency corps of doctors. The two police boats rendered effective service in extinguishing the flames and in relieving the injured.

Chief Engineer Murphy, who was on watch when the accident happened, reported to the officials in this city to-night that the boiler which exploded carried only 150 pounds of steam. Murphy, along with an oiler, had just left the boiler room when the explosion occurred and both are positive that the boiler did not carry the limit of steam allowed by law. Murphy was slightly injured and the oiler, Bryson, was not scratched. The assistant engineer, Chew, and a fireman, who were off watch and were on deck, were killed.

The boilers of the City of Trenton were inspected in June by Federal inspectors and stood a hydrostatic test of 962 pounds to the inch. She was allowed to carry 175 pounds and her safety valve, the company officials say, was so arranged that steam blew off at 160 pounds. Engineer Murphy also maintains that there were seven inches of water in the boiler at the time of the explosion.

The President has appointed Willard R. Bingham consul general at Cape Town, Africa.

A STRIKE IS DECLARED.

In the Olympia, Granby, Richland and Capital City Cotton Mills at Columbia, S. C.—About 1,000 Employes.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

COLUMBIA, S. C., August 28.—Textile Union No. 211, at its meeting tonight, declared a strike in the Olympia, Granby, Richland and Capital City mills until the authorities rescind their action forcing operatives to abjure the union. The striking operatives declare that they have no fear of being idle indefinitely, but will not accept the propositions that have been offered until they have made their fight against the mills.

It is understood that the Textile Union will have the sympathy of the Federation of Labor in the strike now on.

Conservative estimates place the number of strikers at 900 or 1,000. It is expected that this number will be considerably augmented during the next week.

The mill officials to-day began the swearing out of warrants to eject the striking tenants from the dwelling houses which are owned by the mills and leased to the operatives for two weeks at a time.

President Smith Whaley in a card to the State to-morrow will deny his reported statement that "the mill men in South Carolina have entered into an ironclad agreement not to employ union labor."

So far the operatives have been quiet and orderly and no violence is feared for the present.

THE KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.

Grand Encampment Sustained Ruling of the Grand Master On the Independent Membership Question.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 28.—What is known as the independent membership question precipitated a hot fight at the meeting of the Grand Encampment. It ended by the encampment sustaining the ruling of Grand Master Lloyd, who holds that to be in good standing a Knight Templar must maintain his standing in both chapter and lodge.

The committee on jurisprudence brought in a report sustaining the grand master in his position that a grand master cannot create a Knight Templar at sight, after the ancient fashion of kings, who knighted soldiers on the battlefield. This question has been a mooted one, as there has been an element favoring the granting of this privilege to the grand commander, who would thus be able to honor prominent men in the way universities and colleges confer degrees upon distinguished persons.

The encampment decided to put the assessment of Sir Knights back to five cents per capita a year.

A committee to select the time and place of the next conclave was appointed. The committee will report probably on Friday.

FRANCE AND TURKEY.

Sultan Said to be Preparing for War. French Flag Hauled Down From Embassy at Constantinople.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 27.—The French flag was hauled down from over the embassy of France after the departure of the ambassador, M. Constans, and it will not be hoisted again until diplomatic relations are restored. The staff of the embassy remains here, but there is no charge d'affairs. The French consuls in Turkey have been directed to continue to protect French interests.

Besides the immediate causes of the disagreement, it is pointed out that constant difficulties were placed in the way of French commercial interests in Turkey, which contributed to M. Constans' resolution. All the embassies complain of vexatious interference with trade.

Sultan Will Go to War.

VIENNA, Aug. 28.—The Tageblatt to day publishes mail correspondence from Constantinople which says the Sultan will go to war rather than yield to unreasonable demands; that he is studying plans for defence, and that he has ordered three hundred guns from Germany.

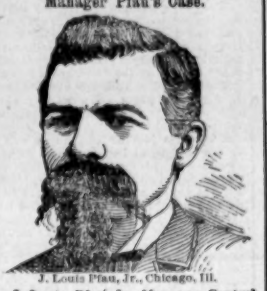
THE WHOLE SYSTEM

May Become Invaded by Catarrh—Manager Pfau's Case.



J. Louis Pfau, Jr., Chicago, Ill.

J. Louis Pfau, Jr., Manager Central Trust Co., writes from suite 201, Times-Herald Building, Chicago, Ill., as follows:

"Last June I had a severe attack of nasal catarrh which was very annoying and debilitated my system. Seeing your advertisements I wrote you for advice. I used Peruna constantly until last November, when the symptoms disappeared entirely."

J. Louis Pfau, Jr.

Hon. James Lewis, Surveyor General of Louisiana, says:

"I have used Peruna for a short time and can cheerfully recommend it as being all you represent and wish every man who is suffering with catarrh could know of its great value."

James Lewis.

Wherever the catarrh is, there is sure to be a waste of mucus. The mucus is as precious as blood. It is blood, in fact. It is blood plasma—blood with the corpuscles removed. To stop this waste, you must stop this catarrh. A course of treatment with Peruna never fails to do this.

Hon. W. E. Schneider, proprietor of the Baltic Hotel, of Washington, D. C., speaks of Peruna as follows: "I desire to say that I have found Peruna a most wonderful remedy. I have only used one bottle and am thoroughly satisfied as to its merits. I cannot find words to express my gratification for the results obtained."
